Message from the President

Dear IDSOG Members,

I hope that this newsletter finds you well. Our annual meeting is right around the corner on August 10-12 at Chateau Deer Valley in Park City, Utah and I warmly invite you to attend. Our Program Committee led by Dr. Linda Eckert has been hard at work putting together a fantastic 2.5 day conference. We again will have sponsored Round Tables to kick off the event and there are rumors of a debate. Dr. David Eschenbach has graciously accepted our invitation to be our Presidential Speaker and will share his deep knowledge of the clinical management of serious infections. As usual, there will be ample opportunity to collaborate, catch-up with old friends, and, of course, dance.

I want to highlight the hard work that our Committees are doing behind the scenes to increase IDSOG’s visibility as a leader in the field of Reproductive Infectious Disease. Did you notice our IDSOG logo on Drs. Wiesenfeld and Peipert’s expert review of sexually transmitted infections and infertility published in AJOG this past January? http://dx.doi.org/10.1016/j.ajog.2016.08.008 That is the fine work of our Publications Committee. In addition to working with AJOG and others, we are hoping to partner with ACOG to work on ID related Practice Bulletins or Committee Opinions and again include our logo. I urge anyone that would like to write an expert opinion to contact Drs. Jason Bell or Brenna Hughes to review their concept and content. Dr. Rich Beigi and the Communications Committee have been working hard with the Maternal Child Survival Program to develop ZIKA related education materials to be distributed world-wide. These activities bring more visibility to IDSOG and serve our educational mission. Many thanks to all those involved!

Our Membership Committee led by Dr. Kimberly Fortner has been hard at work soliciting new membership applications. I am pleased to welcome new members Drs. Catherine Chappell, Christina Munzy, Marcela Smid and Alisa Kachikis! New members are the life blood of our society so please invite your colleagues to join.

We are soliciting Council member nominations. Being on Council is a fun way to get to know other members, and to have a direct impact on the course of IDSOG. We will be developing a new 5 year strategic plan this year. Please contact us if you would like to be considered or if you would like to nominate a member.

I look forward to seeing you in August!

Sincerely,

Carolyn Gardella, MD, MPH
President, IDSOG

Message from the Program Chair

With the help of the Program Committee, I am thrilled with the plans for the 2017 IDSOG Annual Meeting, to be held August 10th-12th, 2017 at The Chateaux Deer Valley in Park City, Utah. We received a record number of high quality abstracts this year which will continue the IDSOG tradition of presenting new and cutting edge science while also providing our members and guests significant networking opportunities.

Dr. Heather Watts, with USAID, will be talking about the Translation of Science into Policy: Course and Impact, Dr. Kristina Adams, a Professor at the University of Washington, has a monkey model for ZIKA and will offer us an update on ZIKA research and knowledge; and Dr. Robert Silver, a Professor at the University of Utah, will discuss the role of Stillbirth and Infection.

We welcome and congratulate this year's trainee scholar awardees and hope to see many of our past awardees at the meeting this year. Your presence has added a palpable new energy to our organization.

On behalf of the Program Committee, I look forward to celebrating IDSOG's tradition of scientific excellence, leadership, and camaraderie with you this summer.

Sincerely,

Linda Eckert, MD
2017 Program Chair, IDSOG
